

A1

Forensic science is the science of ASSOCIATION - because scientific examination of physical evidence seeks to establish whether or not there is any association, for example, between a suspect and victim, or a suspect and a crime.