

A10

The Henry system as it came to be known was named after Sir Edward Richard HENRY (born in 1850, knighted in 1918, died in 1931). The system was first approved for use to classify fingerprints in Bengal, India from 12th June 1897.